MOVE TO STRIKE!

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times. It was a time of angry parents, disgruntled teachers, determined board members and bewildered students. It was the strike of '93.

On September 14, after fruitless negotiations with Board Members, Lambton Secondary School teachers donned running shoes and picket signs as they marched in protest around the Board of Education. The teachers were determined to acquire student-teacher ratios in the classroom and the Board Members were determined not to give in to the teachers' demands. It was a perfect stale mate.

Students reveled in the extended summer holiday while parents were frantic about the disruption of the school year. After several negotiation and arbitration attempts there were still no signs of an agreement. Once elated students began to fear that their school year and futures were in jeopardy. OAC students especially feared the grim prospects of having to return to high school for another year should the strike wear on. However, all anxieties were put to rest on October 27 when Education Minister Dave Cooke legislated the teachers back to work. Here at SCI&TS the halls once again filled with students and teachers trying to fall back into a daily routine. The teachers' strike may have provided a break in the school year but the stress it has created causes most of us to feel as if we were never even gone.

Christmas Door Decorating

Summer came a little early this year for this grade nine home room

This home room gives us a feel of life in the North Pole. Merry Christmas ! Josh Burgess shines with Christmas cheer as Mr. Phillips bellows BAH HUMBUG !

These "Grungeboy's" take time out to strike a pose before their performance.

Christmas Assembly

Me And You

Me and you our relationship should try,
Each day I shall be right here,
Never I will make you cry,
And I never want you to fear.

Really I believe we will last together.
Easy for others to say, we get through the bad days.
Remember from this day forward our love is forever,
Ease your pain about our love that is shared, and don't say.

And yet, to times of good there's smile in my eyes.
Love is real to I, but not to the one I share.
Pin the heart of the souls of I in all my cries.
I myself all alone wondering what's fair.

Get to the point of our love, that it will never be,
So don't ever try the future to see.

Nikki Stewart

Lighthouse

An empty house
An empty bed beside you
All night long
And when you open the door
Alone
The sound of the birds flying south
Crying
Comes floating in your door
Then you hear a sound
Like the November wind blowing and the sound of the sea crashing
On the hard cold shore below you

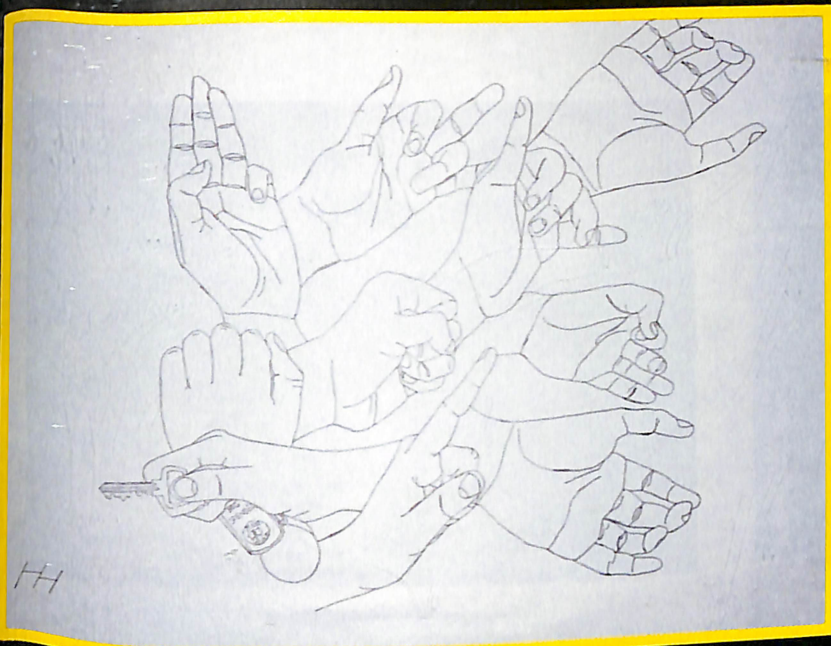

Sharon Walker

By Myself

When I'm by myself
And I close my eyes
I'm a twin
I'm a dimple on a chin
I'm a room full of toys
I'm a squeaky noise
I'm a gospel song
I'm a gong
I'm a leaf turning red
I'm a loaf of brown bread
I'm whatever I want to be
And anything I care to be
And when I open up my eyes
What I care to be
Is Me !!!

Rae-Lynn MacLean

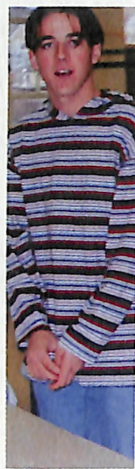

Because I Love You

I exposed my blooming love for your secluded heart;
 Only to find your heart useless;
 For you had given it to someone who had abused it.
 Someone who was greedy, and undeserving of your devotional,
 growing heart;
 Someone who neglected your intense desire to love someone;
 Someone whose heart was empty.
 Now, you feel you have nothing to give, for it has all been taken away.
 No matter how alone, destroyed and lost your shattered heart feels;
 I will be there.
 When I look into your cheerless smile, and desolate eyes;
 I still adore your pure and fresh heart;
 Because I love you.

COMMENCEMENT

Valedictorian Address

"Who'd have thought? Who would have thought? Ladies and gentlemen, friends and relatives, fellow graduates, who would have ever thought that we would find ourselves where we are at this evening? Not just highschool graduation, but commencement - a new beginning. A journey, for many, into uncharted waters; waters of uncertainty to say the least. We have truly reached a crossroad in our lives - this crossroad called commencement. The direction we go from here will vary greatly amongst everyone present this evening. For some, the end of highschool means entry into the labour force. Others will be attending trade school, college, university, while others may find themselves still in highschool finishing up their OAC's. Believe me, I know what that's all about. No matter where we fall into this list, we all have something in common. We all have dreams, goals, and aspirations for the future. These dreams, no doubt, will vary in substance, but this does not matter, for tonight is the night where any dream will do..."

"... We must never let go of our dreams, for they are what drives us to succeed. These dreams represent the stars, and it is these stars that we are urged to reach for in our motto "Sic Itur Ad Astra". We must never forget this, for without dreams and stars to reach for, the clay becomes dry and lifeless. As it is, each and every one of us is a unique piece of art. We will continue to change as we look ahead to the future, but we must be proud of the sculptures we have become. We must display ourselves proudly in this art gallery we often call life, for there are many who wish to see all that we have to offer. So, on this, the night where any dream will do, we must search for our dreams inside our hearts, and our minds. And when we find them, we must live those dreams to the best of our ability, for the world is so vast and promising, and we still have so much more to learn ..."

Student Council was active in making the school year exciting. In December the Student Council and GAA sponsored the annual Christmas Dance, which raised two hundred articles of warm clothing. The Canned Food Drive was another success with 5100 cans donated for the Salvation Army and Moore's Optimist Club. The Canned Food Players Production put on by the teachers was again a high-calibre performance!

In February mentalist Mike Mandel was brought to the school to hypnotize volunteers. Also in February, Student Council put on the Valentine's Day Dance and more warm clothes donations were received.

Second semester saw the return of the bathtub and school spirit days. A survey debating the need for condoms in the school washrooms was also conducted, with the results being that the majority of students wanted them installed. The charities Student Council has donated to are: The Salvation Army, The Inn of the Good Shepherd, Special Olympics, Optimist Club and the SCITS Fitness Centre.

G.A.A.

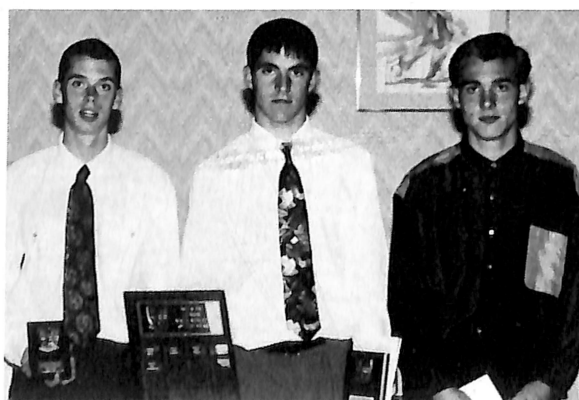

The G.A.A. is a very active club in the school whose purpose is to sponsor events to enhance school life and raise school spirit. Fundraising to support our girls and co-ed athletic teams is another important function of the club.

Some of the major events and activities by the G.A.A. this past year included the Christmas Dance with its "Tree of Warmth", the sale of valentines and heart cookie-grams, the yearly Spring Fashion Show and the Annual Athletic Awards Banquet.

Our ongoing fundraising activities included running the school tuck shop and working bingos. The main beneficiary of our fundraising efforts recently has been the Blue Bomber Fitness Centre. We hope the students and staff enjoy working out in this new facility.

All girls in the school are invited to join the G.A.A. and to share in fun and friendship. See you next year!

INTRAMURALS

Once again Mr. Allen and his OAC physical Education class held the intramurals at lunch time. Students enjoyed participating or just watching a fun student-teacher game. This year there were many exciting and fun events including a teacher-student basketball game, indoor soccer, three on three basketball, four court volleyball and badminton. Thank you Mr. Allen for promoting fun and competition through the intramurals.

YEARBOOK

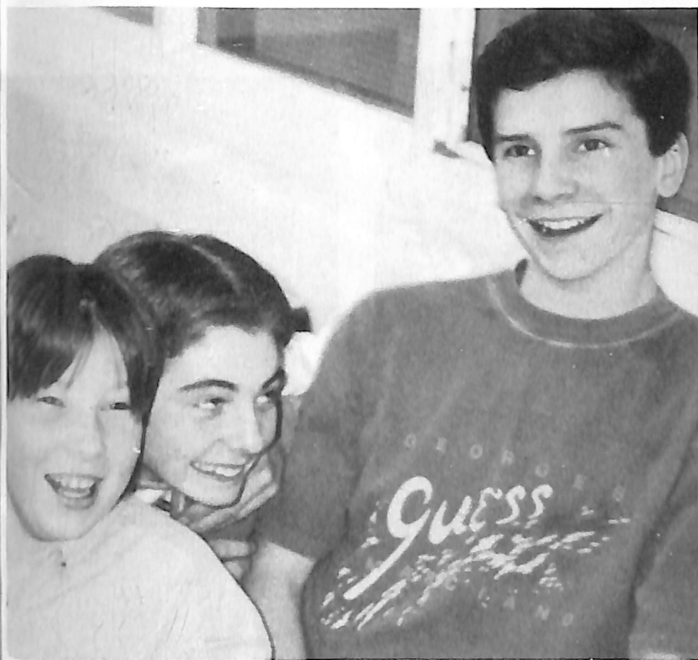

Yearbook Club Members: Kristin White, Michelle Schultz, Kim Bolton, Pam Carlaw, Jeannette Kennedy, Jane McKellar, Danita Kelly, Lily Martinez.

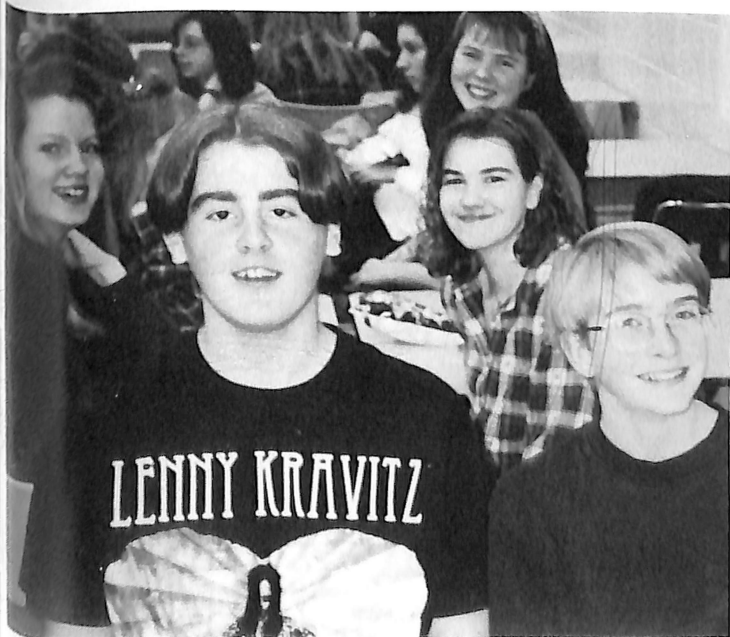

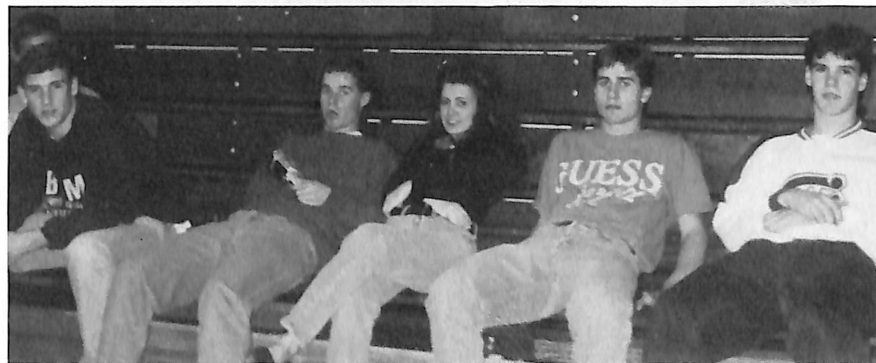

This year's Ad Astra was forced to overcome many setbacks during its production. The lengthy strike cut time enormously - the reason the yearbook will not be distributed until the fall of 1994. The yearbook includes 8 more colour pages including the SCITS Revue, Prom and Fashion Show. We would like to extend a thank-you to all Staff Advisors and students who helped in the creation of this year's Ad Astra.

Michelle Schultz and Kristin White, Co-Editors.

SCITS REVUE

Back For More in '94

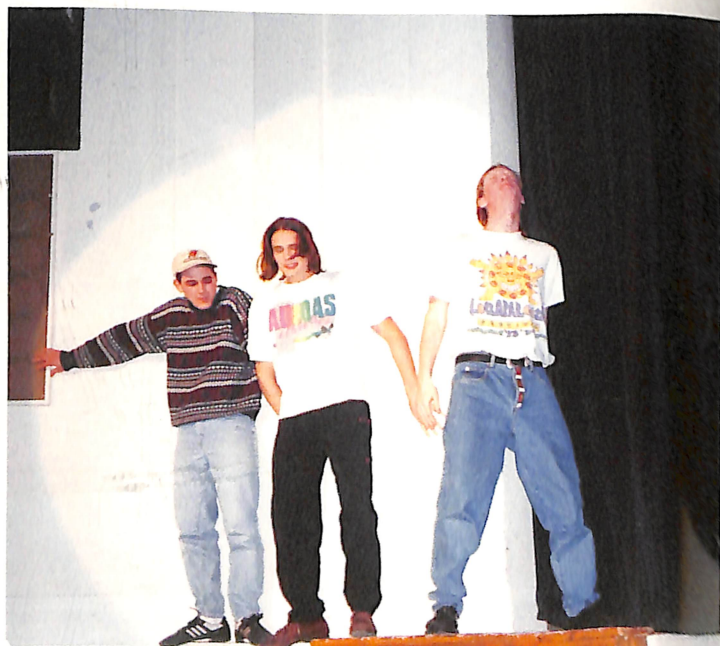

BACK FOR MORE IN "94"

Inspite of a rocky start, the 1994 SCI&TS Review was a huge success. Approximately 125 students from all grades produced a high quality show of songs, dances, skits and fillers. Talent was evident in all aspects of the show, brought together by the leadership of Michelle Schultz, Deb Spaulding, Tony Alexander, Cyril Guerette, Dave Dekker and Don Wheeler who worked well in co-ordinating the production. Thanks to all the staff advisors for their help and time. And keep remembering the Revue-"we're alive in '95"

Secrets of the Orient

TWO TO REMEMBER

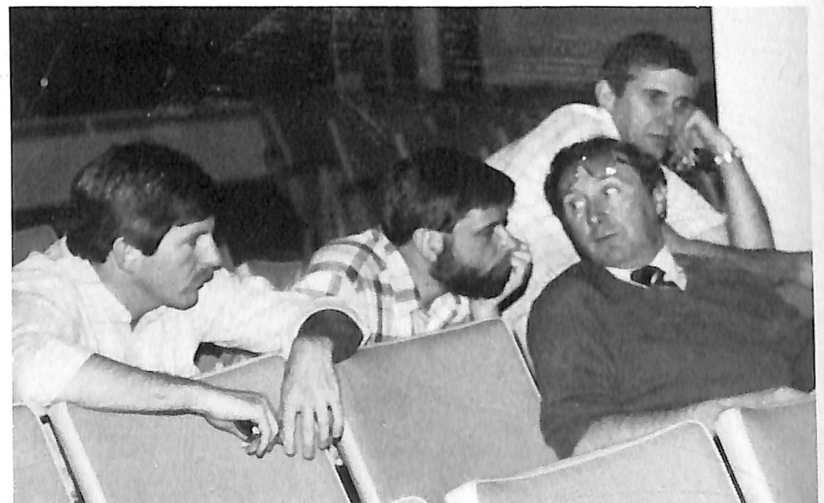

As many of you may have noticed this year as you wander blissfully through the halls of SCI, we are missing a familiar face. Gavin Hall retired last year and his leaving means that we have lost a "true blue" SCITS teacher. Although his physical presence is gone, his spirit lives on. And just what does this spirit represent?

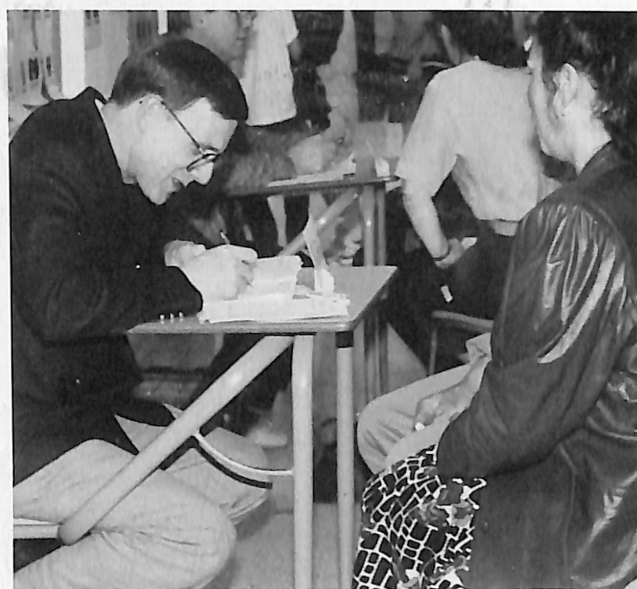

It means a zest for life, a profound belief in the dignity and worth of all, but especially in that of the young adult. It means commitment to causes, a belief that you get out of life what you put into it and a dedication to the staff and students of Samia Collegiate. It means intolerance of ignorance and narrow-mindedness. It means unselfishness, a willingness to help anyone at any time of need and a confirmed belief in the worthiness of involvement in school activities of all types. In short, it means living, not merely existing.

This spirit lives on today. It is what makes Samia Collegiate what it is today—the best school in the province. Gavin believed this with all his heart, and did his best to make this known to the general public. He continues to do so today, a testimony to the pride he takes from being a part of the SCITS community.

We wish him well in his "golden years". We thank him for his contributions, his lessons and his leadership. But most of all, we thank him for caring for us and passing onto us the true spirit of what it means to be a part of this school.

PETER ARTHURS

Peter Arthurs, head of the English Department retired in June 1993 after a long and successful career. Mr. Arthurs, a native of Sudbury, moved to Sarnia at age sixteen and except for his years at the University of Western Ontario and his first five years of teaching at Merritton High School in St. Catharines, has always been a part of this community.

In 1965 Mr. Arthurs, his wife Judy, and the first of their four children returned to Sarnia. Here they have raised their family and he has pursued his career as teacher, assistant head of English, head of the English department since 1972, and always a highly-valued member of the S.C.I.&T.S. staff.

During his years at S.C.I.&T.S. Mr. Arthurs played an active role in the school community. As teacher, English head, advisor to and resident photographer for the school yearbook "Ad Astra", he discharged his duties to his students and department members with energy, compassion, wisdom, and humour.

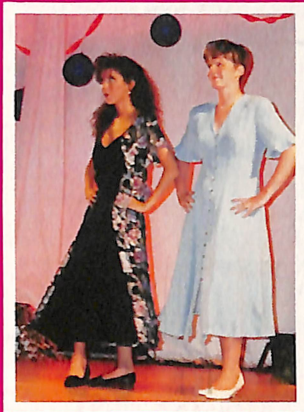

In addition to his work with staff and students, he has also served on many school, board, and O.S.S.T.F. committees.

What does his future hold? Presently, he is keeping busy with some part-time teaching at the Adult Learning Centre. When this stint is over, he will have some time to enjoy his many hobbies and interests: computers, films, theatre, travelling, the outdoors, and most important of all, his first grandchild.

Melody Rhon Pittman

On February 2, 1994, Cystic Fibrosis took the life of Melody. Though few students at Sarnia Collegiate had a chance to meet her, those who did know her knew that Melody was a talkative, bright 13 year old. It isn't easy to accept the death of someone so young, but we can take comfort in knowing that for her, the pain is gone, and heaven is warmed by her gentle smile.

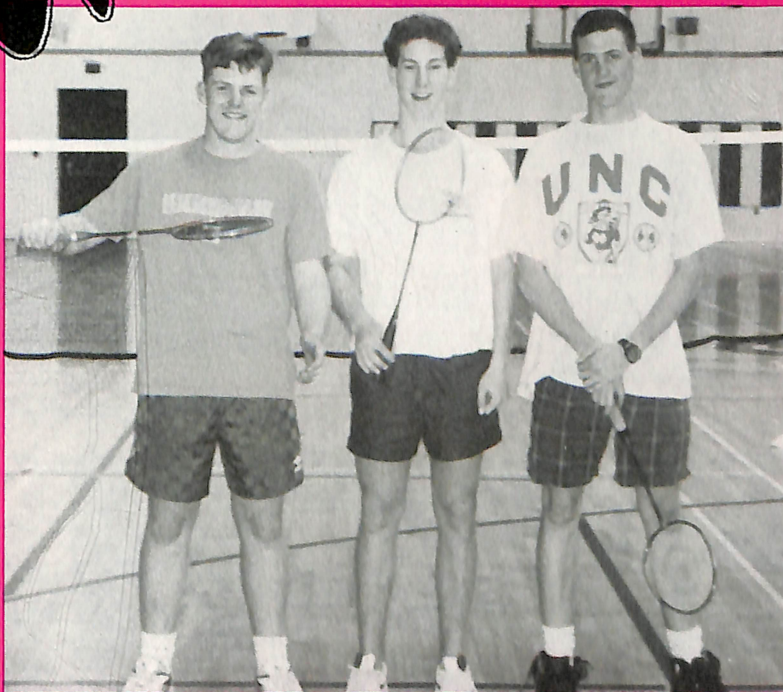

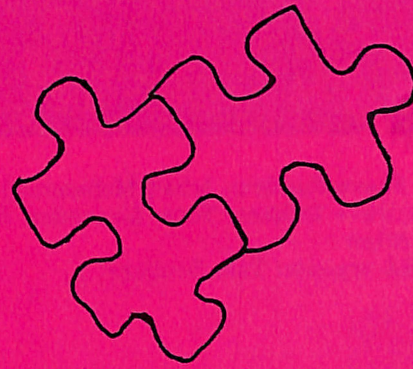

We love and miss you Melody.

RUGBY

The Blue and White Barbarians, the too often unsung and nameless rugby team, beat all the odds and did what many deemed impossible. The boys in blue travelled halfway across the world for one reason and one reason only — to make their school proud. They proved to the doubters that commitment, hard work and determination combined with the pure love of the game can overcome all obstacles. We are grateful to both the school and community for their endless support. We thank Mr. Hunter and Mr. Woodcock for their enthusiasm and contribution to the team. We owe a lot of thanks to many people, and without them we could not do it, but no amount of gratitude can measure the amount of time, patience (patients) and effort that Doctor William O'Mahony and Mark Houlihan (as well as their wives), put into this team and tour.

To misquote Pink Floyd: "All and All, it's just another Ruck and a Maul." Thanks for everything.

BUMP! SET! SPIKE!

Ode To A Volleyball Benchwarmer

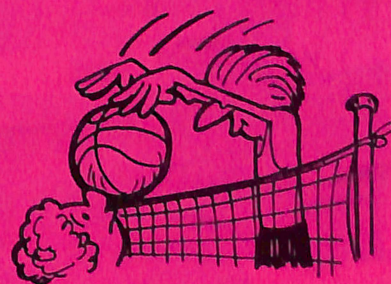

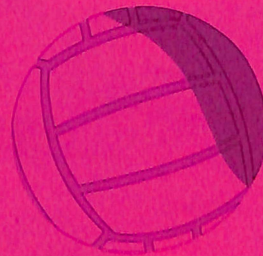

You never missed practice, and never never a game
 Yet still you find you're benchwarming, too bad, what a shame.
 So you sit and you smile and you cheer your team on
 But really you're wondering, "What did I do wrong?"
 It must have been that one practice I missed last week you sighed
 But was it really your fault that your great uncle died?
 You watch the starting six lineup, day after day
 Cash in on every damn moment that there is to play.
 And finally it hits you half way through the season
 You weren't picked to be played, that must be the reason.
 The message is simple and the message is clear
 You only made the team for your big, warm, soft rear.
 It has amazing abilities when put to the test
 To warm up the bench when the first string needs rest.
 So the aspect of playing has been wiped from your head
 "I'm so glad my team fee was well spent," you said.
 You work so hard at practice so that all muscles clench
 And for nothing at all but to sit on the bench.
 And you watch other players, do what no benchie dares
 Play in a game situation, now that's foreign affairs.
 You see how they block, how they set and call mine
 As you stand in disgrace while doing the lines.
 For the starters, benchwarmers cheer and are zealous
 A mark of good sportsmanship as they're insanely jealous.
 The starters may make a mistake, maybe two, three or four
 Yet still they are never pulled from the floor.
 You watch the power hitter go up and display a great kill
 But she comes down on her ankle, too bad, what a thrill!
 The coach is mortified because a sub must go in
 A benchwarmer playing, God what a sin!
 The coach calls your name, your heart's beating fast
 This is your big chance to play, let's not make it your last.
 You are faced with the pressure, you have to do well
 This is your one chance to prove that you don't play like hell.
 And then there's the fact that you're really afraid
 Because you lack the experience because you've never been played.
 But the serve makes it way over the net and somehow you manage to give a fabulous set.
 You've astonished all watching, you're no longer a dud
 Still you receive lifetime membership to the Benchwarmer's Club.

SC/ Fitness Centre

The successful completion of the school's fitness centre was a direct result of staff, students and administration working in unison. Students contributed to the centre by either purchasing Bomber apparel for by selling it. Staff contributed also through purchasing apparel and by having input into the construction and equipping of the centre. Mark Burrowes, Dennis Gusba and Sal Farina were directors of the weight training purchase and overall general design. Sonia Kostanuik and Jeff Allen were directors for the purchasing of cardio equipment. Ms Kostanuik through the G.A.A. supplied a large sum of the financing for the centre. Mr. McNamara, through the B.A.A. supplied funds as well. Other financial support came from the S.C.I.T.S. Revue, Prom Committee Girls' Basketball, Students' Council and the Lambton County Board of Education.

Mr. Hunter must be recognized for his tremendous support of the project and Great leadership.

Mr. J. Allen

Co-op

What is a veterinary technologist? Does an office assistant need to know about computers? These are some of the answers learned by over 100 senior students who had an opportunity during the school year to explore a career in which they had an interest. This even included the adults in the Adult Business class.

Experiences ranged from elementary schools, hospitals to large and small businesses.

Foreign Imports

Marcela Giotto Levy of Limeira Brazil had never seen snow in her life until she arrived in Sarnia during the worst snowfall of the winter. It had been Marcela's dream to come to Canada since she was five years old. She barely spoke any English when she first arrived at her first family, the Chongs' house. She stayed with the Eagleson family for her next four months and then out to Camlachie to stay with the Greensmiths for the next three months. For her last few weeks and for Christmas, she came back to stay with both the Chongs and Eaglesons. She loves mountain biking, art and would like to travel to Italy to study art. She was involved in the SCITS revue and fashion show while she was at SCITS.

Marcela made many friends while she was here and misses them all very much now that she is back home. She has started teaching English and hopes to be back to Sarnia during the summer of '95 with her family. I'm sure she'd have something to say to all of us, which should have special meaning to those who knew her well.

"Eu gostaria de belo palado!"

Andrea Eagleson

My name is Helena Ninsson and I am an exchange student from Sweden. I came here with the Organization Youth for Understanding (YFU).

On August 18, 1993 I came to Canada, Corunna and my new family I've got during this year. Canada's similarity to Sweden made it easy for me to adjust to the life you Canadians live, but I have find some things that are very different.

Fun things never last forever and neither does a year which means that my staying here is almost over and I must return back to Sweden soon. I don't want to think about the day in July when I have to say goodbye to my family and all the people I have met in and outside the school.

However, I have to admit that a piece of my heart will always be left here together with all the people I've met and all the teachers here at SCITS, that were lucky, or unlucky to have me in their classes. To all of you I just want to thank you for making my year to an experience I will never forget.

Helena

SCITS has also enjoyed the presence of other exchange students like Dave Nagy. Dave Nagy is from Hungary who is staying in Canada for one year. Through the time that he has been at S.C.I.T.S. Dave has met many people and has made many new friends. He has participated in school events including this year's S.C.I.T.S. Review and the swim team. He enjoys coming to S.C.I.T.S. even though he finds our school system very different from his homeland.

Another exchange student was Beatrice Martin from Madrid, Spain. She stayed in Sarnia for a short time. Now she is back home where she is hosting Sabrina Raaymaker a S.C.I.T.S. student.

MISSION STATEMENT

THE POLYSAR, S.C.I.T.S. P.A.I.R.S. RELATIONSHIP EXISTS TO PROMOTE AND ENHANCE THE MUTUAL SHARING OF RESOURCES TO THE BENEFIT OF STUDENTS, EDUCATORS, POLYSAR EMPLOYEES, AND THE COMMUNITY. THIS WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED BY FACILITATING LIFELONG LEARNING THROUGH PROJECTS, PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES.

Partners Active in Resource Sharing

POLYSAR/S.C.I.T.S P.A.I.R.S

Partners Active in Resource Sharing

The involvement of business in education is not new. For the first half of the century the interest was pervasive. Business leaders and educators readily agreed that an important objective was the preparation of students for a productive work life. However, from the mid 1960's to the late 1970's, business leaders became increasingly distant from the schools and their interest shifted to the universities. During the past eight years, business leaders have been re-establishing connections with public education, primarily due to the changes in labour supply. The present trend is through partnerships which have focused on helping to improve the overall educational system and to aid in the community as well. All parties benefit from effective partnerships. This includes employers, employees, support staff, teachers, principals and most importantly the learners. We at Sarnia Collegiate Institute and Technical School have been blessed with an extremely active P.A.I.R.S. relationship with Polysar for the past six years. On behalf of all of us at S.C.I.T.S, I would like to say "Thank you Polysar" for all that you have shared with us.
